The newly appointed Register of the U. S. Land Office, Mr. Bond, has been in town. He seems to be a very pleasant gentleman.

Daniel Mitchell, Deputy U. S. Collector, will visit Salina on Tuesday next, for the purpo of collecting the U. S. Income tax.

G. M. Simcock, Esq., of Council Grove, is in town, looking good-natured and pursy as of old. G.M. is a host within himself.

John Foster, Esq., attorney, has remove office into the second story of Dible & Davis' harness and saddle store, front room.

They do say "that Whitehead, at the post office, is the best jeweler in Western Kansas." What everbody says must be true. J. K. Longaker has commenced the erection of his music room and sewing-machine depot, on Ash Street. He will have a good building. We notice that Lotz & Holland are doing a good real estate business. They have a choice lot of lands and city lots for sale at good rates Go to Goethal's for the best assortment of fire-arms, amunition and gun accouterments in the city. He will do your "mending" also. Edwin E. Bowen, of Junction City, will open a real estate office here. We are much pleased with his appearance, and think he will do well. Tressin selling the best kind of stoves, all kinds of leard-ware and agricultural implements, as-

Donegan & Dyer propose to hold auctions at their stable, for the sale of all kinds of stock, viduals. Let them come by the thousands the 13th of May.

We are requested to announce that the Methodist church building, on Seventh Street, is for sale, together with two good lots. A fine chance for a good bargain.

Capt. McClure, of Junction City, will put up a fine two-story building at the corner of Santa Fe Avenue and Ash Street, north side, the coming summer. So we hear it said.

Blessel be Thacher for his orange treat, and blessings without number comfort him while he serves up in good style the savory viands at his popular restaurant.

As there is a good chance of fine crops the coming season, in this country, we are of the opinion that the grist mills that we now have in this county will be unable to do all the grinding that will have to be done, and that of his friends, who work fattlely day and night to kill off Tux Jouwan, by their "Sarrossie." there is a good opening for another one.

A fire-company is something Salina needs very much, but until she has one, the only assurance a person can possibly have of his propperty being restored to him in value, in case of fire, is to take out policies in reliable insurance companies at Durham's office on Sante Pe.

It will support their "Saracenic attacks upon our Christian campa." They do this work, because our paper has, since its origin, persistently denounced such reacals as they. We wish them success. About one hundred and fifty declaratory statements and homestead entries were made the other day when we were there. and it was not a good day for them either.

No better agent for any business than J. K. Longaker can be found. A. Sumner & Co., for whom he is the special business man of this county, have given him the credit of being as necessful as any other of their agents, and making larger sales than most of them. The number of planos, organs and sewing machines he has disposed of in the past few months, has been simply prodigious.

We had a very pleasing conversation with Capt. Prescott, the other day, about his Washington trip. He beard the San Domingo ques tion discussed in the Senate, saw all the big permages and all places of interest, lingered for "Happy as a big sun-flower," is Charley awhile by the tomb of Washington, and then made his homeward trip, more than satisfied with his journey, and his experiences at the Council Grove. His visit brought vividly to mind pleasant relations of the past, and created in us a longing to live over again a part of the life gone by. The Major is one of the best men of Western Kansas, a perfect gentleman, always true to the principles of right, and possessed of fine acquirements. He has been the recipient of considerable distinction of late years, and is destined to obtain still greater preferment. We were gratified to learn from him that the Republicans of Council Grove are about to secure the establishment of a paper suited to their faith. A Mr. II. J.
